

Today your child participated in an Art Appreciation lesson!

Today we presented American Gothic by Grant Wood.

We discussed the artist's background, as well as the details of the painting.

Then the students viewed a few parodies to the American Gothic idea. We talked about what is always the same, the roles of the two people in the painting and how they might have changed today.

Then we gave each student a template to create their own parody of this iconic piece.

We had a lot of fun, and we hope they did too!

Art Appreciation Volunteers

Today your child participated in an Art Appreciation lesson!

Today we presented American Gothic by Grant Wood.

We discussed the artist's background, as well as the details of the painting.

Then the students viewed a few parodies to the American Gothic idea. We talked about what is always the same, the roles of the two people in the painting and how they might have changed today.

Then we gave each student a template to create their own parody of this iconic piece.

We had a lot of fun, and we hope they did too!

Art Appreciation Volunteers

Today your child participated in an Art Appreciation lesson!

Today we presented American Gothic by Grant Wood.

We discussed the artist's background, as well as the details of the painting.

Then the students viewed a few parodies to the American Gothic idea. We talked about what is always the same, the roles of the two people in the painting and how they might have changed today.

Then we gave each student a template to create their own parody of this iconic piece.

We had a lot of fun, and we hope they did too!

Art Appreciation Volunteers