

Cave Paintings- Lascaux, France

Today during art appreciation we learned about the cave paintings in Lascaux, France. We discussed the print of the Black Bull and traveled to a "cave." It was so much fun to learn about the Old Stone Age to find out how ancient human beings created these amazing cave paintings using rich, earthy colors of their natural surroundings. The children had fun making their own cave drawings to tell stories that are relevant to their own lives...

Cave Paintings- Lascaux, France

Today during art appreciation we learned about the cave paintings in Lascaux, France. We discussed the print of the Black Bull and traveled to a "cave." It was so much fun to learn about the Old Stone Age to find out how ancient human beings created these amazing cave paintings using rich, earthy colors of their natural surroundings. The children had fun making their own cave drawings to tell stories that are relevant to their own lives...